We may honor all transfer orders, withdrawals, deposits, and other transactions on an account until we know of an owner's death. Even with such knowledge, we may continue to pay checks or drafts or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased owner for a period of ten days after the owner's death unless we receive instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks, drafts, or other items. We may require anyone claiming funds from an account of a deceased owner to indemnify us for any losses resulting from our honoring that claim. This Agreement will be binding upon any heirs or legal representatives of any account owner. Accounts of a deceased member must be closed promptly. Joint owners, if eligible, may establish membership in their own name and open a separate account into which the joint owner may deposit, as appropriate, balances from accounts owned jointly with the deceased member.
